MAY IS CHILD CARE MONTH

The School Age Child Care Association in partnership with the Jewish Community Centre of Greater Vancouver celebrate "May Is Child Care Month" and offer four summer workshops to get you geared up for the upcoming season.

Intro 9:20-9:50

How I Spent My Summer Vacation

SACCA has invited three centres to come and do a brief Show and Tell on how they spent their summer vacation. This is a great opportunity for staff to get information on what activities other centres have been doing and where they are going for fieldtrips.

Session 1- 10:00-11:00

A) What Does Licensing Want?

Presenter: Eve Adams

Child Care Licensing Officer at Vancouver Coastal Health

In this workshop we will have a look at the responsibilities of the School Age caregiver and the expectations of the Regulatory body.

Content:

- 1 SAC qualifications and Regulatory requirements.
- 2 What's a policy and procedure?
- 3 Summer safety procedures at parks, playgrounds and on fieldtrips.
- 4 Incidents when to report, injuries, missing children.
- 5 Healthy snacks and drinks.

B) "Engaging High Energy Activities With Group Management Skills"

Presenter: PJ Prinsloo

PJ facilitates a workshop called Safe Teen: Powerful Alternative to Violence and is a Jericho Kids Club staff.

PJ has learned many techniques to encourage positive, empowering and creative activities. He is a firm believer that children are the key, teaching them not only academically but also socially is of major importance. In this workshop PJ will be demonstrating how to successfully run high-energy activities and games while engaging and maintaining a sense of control and direction at your center. Be ready to get involved!

Session 2- 11:30-1:00

A) Conflict Resolution Skills

Presenter: Karen Bondi

Karen has a MA degree in conflict resolution and certification and in mediation from the Justice Institute of BC. Currently a full time mediator for the MCFD focusing on parent-teen and co-parenting mediation.

Karen will discuss various strategies designed to assist employers and employees to develop and maintain enhanced communication skills and conflict resolution capabilities. These are intended to assist them in everyday work related interpersonal problems and difficulties they may encounter. The lecture will focus particularly on acquiring conflict identification and prevention skills as well as teaching participants how to resolve work-related disputes effectively in a constructive, rather than a confrontational manner.

Or

B) Tools For Tough Times

Presenter: Jeff Willis

Creative Toolbox

Creative Toolbox is hosting the "Tools for Tough Times" for the staff who wants to engage, discover and learn how to manage challenging children, parents, co workers and situations. The Tool for Tough Times activities/discussions are designed to facilitate change, promote best practises and maintain the success of the program. Come and join an interactive and motivational 1.5 hour workshop where you learn to use the tools to succeed as a professional community worker.
